Wayland, May 22 1902

Wm. F. Wesby
Treasurer

Dear Sir:

Replying to your enquiry of this date, the Wayland Free Public Library is not incorporated, and is supported by the Town of Wayland, and is a part of the Town property. The Trustees are elected by the people under the Statutes of Massachusetts pertaining to Public Libraries. From this it would appear that when there is occasion for a suit by or against the Library it would be by or against the Town of Wayland.

Yours very truly

Arthur G. Pennell
Com. for Trustees
Wayland Free Public Library

Cleveland, Ohio, May 2, 1870

Mrs. A. M. Hill

Dear Madam:

Replying to your inquiry, I do not recollect, now, if I did or did not buy the Cleveland Herald, but I do know that it was a matter of public notoriety, at the time, that the Herald was the property of Mr. Andrew Freeman.
Freeman then sold it to Mr. Harris. Mr.
Harris then sold it to Mr. Brush, who afterwards presented the Herald to the City of Cleveland, for a Public Library.

Yours very truly,

Milton S. Kennedy
Secy. for Trustees
Cleveland Pub. Library

Wayland May 2d 1902

Wm H Willits
{New York}

Dear Sir:

Replying to your inquiry of Apr 25-the Wayland Free Public Library is not incorporated, and is supported by the town of Wayland and is a part of the Town property.

The trustees are elected by the people under the statutes of Massachusetts pertaining to Public Libraries. From this it would appear that when there is occasion for a suit by or againstthe Library it would be by or against the Town of Wayland.

Yours very {truly}

Arthur G. Bennett
Com. for Trustees
Wayland Free Public Library